

Surrey County Notes (October 2013) by Chris Andrews

Aaron McKibbin was part of the Paralympic team that beat Brazil on National Paralympic day.

A table tennis match made in heaven saw Joanna Parker twice English National Singles Champion marry Paul Drinkhall four times English Men's National Singles Champion. They married at the Holy Family church in Addlestone, Surrey on Friday August 9th and had the reception at the Guildford Ramada afterwards, also in Surrey. Following the wedding they had a two week honeymoon in the Dominican Republic.

Tin-Tin Ho started out on her table tennis career at Crusaders and in the recent Guildford Grand Prix she came back to Surrey and won the women's title and the under-21's women's title.

Darius Knight won the 2nd Urban & Civic Hunts 2 star table tennis Championship beating Gavin Rungay in the final. Des Norbury won the women's Band 1 at the same event.

Due to the reduced number of subscriptions the ETTA have decided to close the Ron Crayden Memorial fund.
