

April 2016 Surrey County Notes by Chris Andrews

Aaron McKibbon is one of 12 Great Britain Table Tennis players named for the Rio Paralympics.

A BBC interview with Paul Drinkhall also showed Joanna Drinkhall and baby Douglas with Douglas and Paul holding a table tennis bat on one side of the table and Joanna on the other, they managed a good long rally.

Shaquille Webb-Dixon came 8th in the Junior National Cup.

In the Surrey Veterans Surrey I won Division 2B and with Surrey II also Champions of Division 2C. Surrey III finished mid table in Division 2C and Surrey IV avoided relegation in Division 2C. Thanks goes to team Captains Sally Cimiotti, Phil Snelson and Diane McLellan. In the Juniors Division 1B Surrey survived relegation.

At the Horsham Spinners 2star event Mikaeel Toosy won the under-11 event. Henry Maric-Murray was runner-up in the under-12 consolation event. Adit Gandhi won the under-14 consolation event and Robert Pelc was runner-up in the main under-18 event.

Kim Mudge has now been made Chairman of the South-East Table Tennis Region.

It is very sad news to say that Fred Garbet a loyal servant of Molesey Table Tennis club has died. An obituary will soon follow on the Surrey Table Tennis website.
